Ranger Cheerleaders Chosen By Nathan Hale Students

Nathan Hale selected 16 new cheerleaders on September 15 for the A and B squads. Junior cheerleaders (A-squad) are Carolyn Brown, Fran Crain, Pat Dupree, Suellen Fisher, Diana Marshall, Judy Moore, Becky Posey and Sharon Wood; the Sophomore cheerleaders (B-squad) are Shelly Arnold, Connie Clothier, Wallyne Cox, Janet Honn, Molly Lay, Sandy Miller, Paula Mullen and Terry Tanner. The alternates are Donnie Kar, Jr.; and Judy Land, Soph.

The girls were judged on the following: personality, appearance, pronunciation, presentation and final rating. Following earlier tryouts the number of contestants was reduced to 24 and the final choice was made by the students of the junior and sophomore classes.

Meryle Tyler, cheerleader at O.U. and one of the nation's top authorities on tumbling and cheerleading, has been working with the Hale cheerleaders and will continue to work with them throughout the season preparing them for state wide competition in Norman.
